HUMOR

Last Will and Testament

We the SENIORS of 1971, announce this to be our last will and testament.

To the Freshman class we will our Maturity.

To the Sophomore we will our ability to get more girls (?) for class officer.

To the Juniors we leave our ability to sell "Polywogs" and make a profit.

I, Beverly Bickler, will my quietness to Jeanette and Bonnie, the warm bathroom to the Juniors, and my desk to my sister Annette.

I, Kevin Bickler, will my desk and books to anyone who wants them, my good driving habits to Corrine Klien, and my old girl friends to the Freshman Class.

I, Rita Ebach, will my desk, books, and great bus ride to Karen Heintz, my quietness in study hall to Loretta Schmaltz, and my good behavior to the Sophomore boys.

I, Margie Eisezimmer, will to Bonnie, my ability to try and get the car and be home by 2:00 A.M., the warm gym bathroom to the Junior girls, my ability to like Literature to Loretta, and to be ready for the bus on time to Sheila and Ronald Volk.

I, Jody Gebhardt, will to the Junior girls my savings account, and my school behavior handbook to the Freshman Class.

I, Beverly Hager, will my ability to get along with the teachers and my good behavior to anyone who needs it, and my good times in school to anyone who earns it.

I. Rod Muffenbier, will my long hair to Pat Wentz, my desire to go to the games instead of staying home to watch the movie to Mike Hagel, and my books and back row desk to Frank Goetz.

I, Charlotte Schaan, will my ability to be a mailman to Frank Goetz, my ability to get along with the teachers to Bonnie Schnieder, my good behavior to the Junior girls, my quietness to Jeanette Zacher, and my books, desk, and long walk to school to Kenny Weigel.

I, Randy Schaan, will my books to Ray Bickler and Ronald Volk, my ability to get along with the English teacher to Kenny Weigel, my long walks to school and from school and my ability to be "Mr. Mailman" to Frank Goetz.

I, Steven Schaan, will my ability to get free refreshments at games and candy sales to the Junior girls, my ability to hustle girls to Bruce Hager and Auggie Mack, and my good times at parties to Jim Hager and Kelly Gebhardt (Whom I'm sure will make the best of it).

I, Leonard Schmaltz, will my ability to quench thirst to Frank Goetz, my good driving habits and my ability to get what I want to my sister Loretta, and my English and Literature books to the incinerator.

I, Marion Schnieder, will my bus rides and getting my correspondence courses done to Bonnie, to be quiet in study hall to Kenny Weigel, being one of the first ones to get on the bus to Jeannie Schaan, and my good behavior to the Freshman Class.

We hereby sign our names on this 53rd day of Zerbuius, 1515 ZY.

Gettin' Together

I wouldn't touch it if I were you!

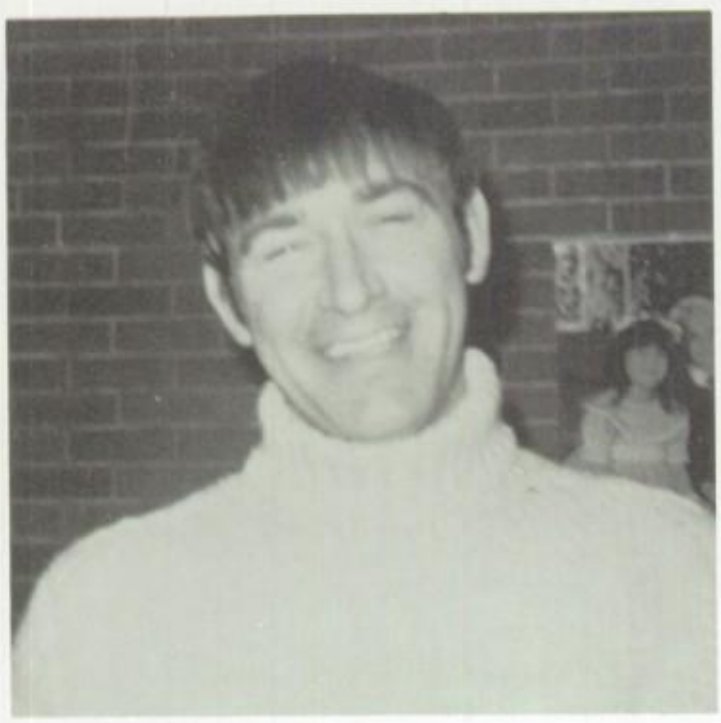
"What can I get into next"

My you've grown, Len!

Who are you hiding from?

Our symbol of yesterday (Innocent)

Just sign "your" name



Now, WHO is this?!!

Is this the highest you're going to get?

What a wonderful couple

Just "listen" and you'll do fine

Secret Agent Man

Could she be a future Governor?

Steve, with who are you fighting?

What are you doing in the box, Bev?

Is this a new dance

Did we catch you by SURPRISE?

HAIR!

M-m-m dinner is good today

Whose the guilty one?

Smile pretty now

You guys wouldn't tell, would ya?

Is this really you Jody?

Is this a regular dinner routine?

They kicked the habit

Remember when we took this, Herman?

Is that gum you're going to chew?

Good to the last bite

Writing another letter!?!

Hands off!

Randy, do you still babysit?

Rita, does Mr. Manly see you combing Margie's hair?

B. H. S. future actor

Do you people always do this

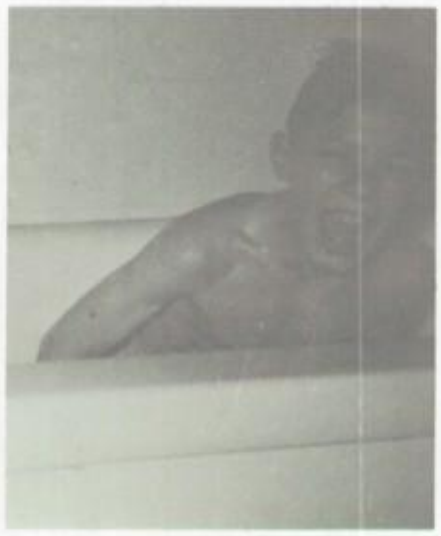
Is this the study hall or library?

You used the car then too, huh Kev?

Santa, I've been behaving

Marg, just hold on and don't be scared

Were you two caught again?



It's all a put-on act

Pleasant memories of school days.
